

Ancaster Film Fest

Monday Night at the Movies

$1000 was donated from the last screenings to the Bridge: from Prison to Community. Proceeds from today's screenings will go to Ancaster Society for the Performing Arts.

Monday April 23: Tulipani: Love Honour and a Bicycle, 1:00, 7:15 p.m. (English; Italian, Dutch with English subtitles)

A wonderfully woolly tale of rediscovering one's roots — and rectifying a decades-old wrongdoing, to boot — Tulipani, Love, Honour and a Bicycle has more fantastic twists than its title has nouns.

Bursting with colour and romance and teeming with charming performances — including one from Oscar nominee Giancarlo Giannini as an exceedingly patient detective — Tulipani, Love, Honour and a Bicycle is a story about travelling far to know who you are, and about the joys and consolations of storytelling itself. Michele Maheux/TIFF

Monday April 23: The Breadwinner, 4:00 p.m. based on Deborah Ellis' award-winning novel.

A work of striking beauty and affecting emotional heft enhanced by an Afghan-themed score by Mychael Danna & Jeff Danna, The Breadwinner reminds us yet again that the best of animation takes us anywhere at any time and makes us believe. Kenneth Turan/Los Angeles Times

Not unlike her gutsy protagonist, director Twomey moves through the charged landscape with extraordinary agility. Combining gripping suspense with a quote from the immortal Persian poet Rumi, she creates a stirring final sequence from the rising chords of terror and resilience. Sheri Linden/Hollywood Reporter

Special Note: Bring along a teen or tween and use your membership card to pay for his/her entry. (one hole-punch per teen or tween)
